

JMN Investments Research (P) Ltd

Company Profile JMN provides research-outsourcing services to the investment industry. We provide customized investment analysis on U.S. companies for our U.S. based clients to help them make informed Buy/Sell decisions on stocks, bonds, derivatives and convertible securities. We also work with Wall Street firms helping there senior analysts conduct research, for publishing and for their investment banking needs. Our clients include U.S. Insurance Companies, Wall Street Broker Dealers and U.S. Mutual Funds to name a few. We strive to bring the benefits of outsourcing to our clients by providing customized, cost-effective, timely and proprietary research solutions.

Job Description

The Credit Analyst will work in India as a junior analyst for a hedge fund based in the U.S. He/She will build models, follow companies gather news and interact with company management, work independently following companies with a view of providing credit analysis for investment decision making.

Qualification:

- An MBA Finance /CA/CFA Level I, II, III
- At least two years of work experience performing credit analysis
- Prior experience in analyzing financial data for investment decision making / analysis
- Fluency in written and spoken English
- Strong Excel modeling skills

The position is based in Chennai. Interested candidates email your resume to careers@jmnirl.com